DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Omura (US 6,618,577). As illustrated in Figure 1, Omura teaches the claimed invention. Omura teaches an image forming apparatus 21 comprising an ejected paper section 37 to which recording paper S on which printing has been completed is ejected. Omura also teaches a pair of paper ejection rollers 39, rotatable in forward and reverse rotations, for transporting the recording paper S in an ejecting direction by rotating in the forward direction and transporting the recording paper S in the direction opposite to the ejecting direction by rotating in the reverse rotation. See column 4 lines 62-65. Insofar as structure is recited, Omura meets the limitations for a stopper. As shown in Figure 1, the vertical wall of section 37 constitutes a stopper because the wall stops ejected paper from moving to the left. Also, because of the section's deep vertical orientation, it also prevents the recording paper ejected to the ejected paper section from contacting the pair of paper ejection rollers 39.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed December 20, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Throughout the applicant's response, the applicant claims that Omura does not teach a "stopper" and does not provide the recited function of preventing the ejected recording media from contacting the pair of paper ejection rollers. The examiner respectfully disagrees. Insofar as structure is recited, Omura teaches the limitations for a stopper. As outlined in the rejection statement, the vertical wall of section 37 constitutes a stopper because the wall stops ejected paper from moving to the left. Furthermore, because of the section's deep vertical orientation, it also prevents the recording paper ejected to the ejected paper section from contacting the pair of paper ejection rollers 39.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1, 2, and 13-20 are allowed.
5. Claims 4-12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a). A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
